

Josep Antoni (Pep) studied at the Superior College of Industrial Engineers in Barcelona (ETSEIB) – part of the Polytechnic University of Catalonia (UPC) and in 1998 he earned a Bachelors and Masters Degree in MEP engineering.

He completed postgraduate studies in Real Estate and Hotel Investment at Cornell-University in Ithaca, New York.

He is a certified expert in Feasibility and Financing of Real Estate Projects by the Real Estate Business School (REBS).

Project Manager PMP® certified and associated with the Project Management Institut PMI® and the American Society of Value Engineering SAVE International, he is certified in PM2 essentials by PM2 Alliance and certified Scrum Master and Product Owner by EuropeanScrum.

He is a member of the building and urban agenda commission and of the international committee of TECNIBERIA.

He is a guest lecturer in the Project Manager postgraduate course at the University of the Balearic Islands (UIB) and in the Corporate Social Responsibility course at the UIB Faculty of Tourism.

He is certified as a BREEAM® Associate, certified WELL AP® (Accredited Professional) and certified by TÜV Rheinland in carbon footprint calculation and management.

He has participated in numerous courses and seminars and is currently a speaker at Project Management and Sustainability courses and webinars.

He is the coordinator and head of the Sustainable Tourism Commission of the Spanish Association of Scientific Tourism Experts (AECIT).

He is a Board of Directors member of Aproscm Foundation, which works to achieve the inclusion of people with disabilities in the labour market in Mallorca.

He has been a member of the Board of Directors since 2021. He has recently been elected President of the Spanish Association of Project Management Companies (AEDIP).

